Holy Land Pilgrimage 2019

Pastor’s Corner

Dear Parishioners,

In the Epiphany, we consider that the Holy Name of Jesus was already manifested. The name was given Him by the Angel Gabriel before He was conceived. St. Bernard points out that the angel called Him Jesus, meaning Savior, to indicate that He is the Savior of the angels too. Bernard says: “And note the depth of the meaning of the word: after His birth He called Jesus “Jesus” by Men; even before His conception He had been called “Jesus” by an Angel. This means that He is Savior of both Angels and Men: of Angels from the beginning of creation, of men from the time of His incarnation.

There had been other ‘saviors,’ for instance, Joshua who led the people into the Promised Land, but no other savior is able to save from sin – all sin of all men for all time. Therefore the name Jesus, Savior, belongs to Him not just by what He has done, but by who He is. Bernard again says: “For this name is His from all eternity. He is Savior by His own proper nature. This name is innately His, not given Him by any human or angelic creature.”

In word or work, do all in the name of the Lord, Jesus – St. Paul’s exhortation. How can we do this? At the beginning of our day, it is fitting to make the sign of the cross: “In the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.” (Note that the three members of the Trinity are invoked by one name, not the other.) Is this the same as invoking the name of the Lord Jesus? Yes it is! No human word is able to express the totality of God and therefore we have many expressions, all of which highlight one aspect. Therefore, when we make the Sign of the Cross, we are praying with the name of all the names of God, including Jesus. Some Protestants make the mistake of being overly-literal—sincerely, even in their baptism right. The Church saves us from this error.

The Sign of the Cross. We begin our day in the name of the Lord, Jesus; for God, with God, by God, in God. Before important tasks, it is quite fitting to renew this consecration, by making the Sign of the Cross. In this way we ask for divine assistance. We can add other prayers to this sign, of course, but the Sign of the Cross is a prayer and act of consecration.
