Mission Trip to Peru

We are happy to announce that Tim Grumblatt has been accepted on the FSSP Mission trip to Peru this year. (Since the kids who go are enthusiastic to return each year, there are many applicants.) Tim is accepted to help introduce this mission to our parish. As a representative of the parish, it is fitting that we should have him to help with the expenses associated with this trip. It will be a great learning experience for all of us. You can see a very nicely done, inspiring, 10-minute documentary video at this link: https://www.teammission.com

You can also see here an update of EWTN’s Life Rock with the trip’s fearless leader, Fr. Daniel Heenan, FSSP. Donate online or envelopes available on the back table. Checks payable to St. Joseph Parish.

Confirmation

Is early this year: Sat. April 6. We are pleased to welcome the judicial vicar for the diocese, Rev. Msgr. Muñich, as the minister. The day will unfold as follows: 9 am Low Mass, 10 am Walk through for candidates and sponsors, 11 am Confirmation Ceremony with Msgr. Muñich, 12 noon Reception in the Hall for candidates and their families.

Feeding the Hungry

Please see the insert today about this in downtown Richmond at St. Peter’s Church. Their apostolate to the homeless and unfortunate is much larger than this small parish can handle. They need our assistance. Please come to the informational meeting on Sun. 28 April, at 1:30 pm, Fr. Adriann Hall.

Pastor’s Corner

Dear Parishioners,

Thank you for those who attended our Day of Recollection with Msgr. Andrew Amore last Saturday and helped make the day possible. I’d like to thank in particular Bernadette Piccininni and all her helpers who made the atmosphere comfortable and welcoming. I’d like to thank the men who moved tables and chairs around – even keeping the rows pretty straight.

In addition, I’d like to thank those who made our Feast Day Pot Luck on Sunday a nice occasion. Pat Valerio, Sal LaPaglia and Timmy Grumblatt prepared our main dish and had it ready to go. The service was aptly handled by Msgr. Lindsay and her crew of helpers who conducted the “family style” with efficiency. Those who generously help out do so for the love of God, goodness and neighbour, and not for the accolades. Nevertheless, thank you very much.

Speaking of parish events, in order to maintain the pastor’s sanity, please welcome a new volunteer position called Parish Event Coordinator. This person will help the pastor create or manage the events, not necessarily social, which serve the parish as a whole. They will help introduce this mission to our parish. As a representative of the parish, it is fitting that we should have him to help with the expenses associated with this trip. It will be a great learning experience for all of us. continued
at St. Peter’s Downtown

St. Joseph Parish has been supporting St Peter’s ministry to the homeless with clothing, personal items and food stuffs. Our generosity is greatly appreciated.

St. Peter’s also provides meals for the hungry twice weekly: noon on Tuesdays and 5 pm on Wednesdays. The average number served is about 110. This ministry is made possible by the support of various other Richmond parishes, who typically provide a meal once per month. However, a gap has developed on the 5th Wednesdays of the month.

St. Joseph Parish is now committed to fill in that gap for the rest of 2019, which dates are: May 29, July 31 and October 30. We ask you to consider participating.

How does it work? There are two opportunities to participate: cooking and serving.

Cooking: We will plan a simple meal menu, which we will serve each time. Those who volunteer to cook will provide one item in a set quantity. For example, one parish has chosen to serve meatloaf, steamed vegetables and brownies, which they do each month. Their volunteers prepare one pan of meatloaf, or one pan of brownies, using a set recipe for uniformity. The prepared food is delivered to their own parish ahead of time, and then transported to St. Peter’s on the day it will be served.

Serving: This requires 8 to 10 volunteers arriving at St. Peter’s at 4 pm. This group is responsible for warming any pre-cooked food, and preparing simple side dishes, like steamed vegetables. St. Peter’s has a full-service kitchen with a serving window. At 5 pm the prepared food is plated and served out the window. Lemonade, tea and ice water are provided by St Peter’s. There are tables and chairs where the guests sit to eat. The meal is over at 6 pm. The servers clean-up the kitchen and put everything away.

Father Rossi, Pastor of St. Peter’s, starts off the meal with a prayer and a blessing. He also stays to help put away the tables and chairs and take out the trash. We would help with this as well.

We will have an informational meeting for all comers on 28 April 2019, 1:30 pm, in Fr. Adrian Hall. This year, because we are new to this type of ministry, we are limiting the actual serving to non-minors.

Thank you. See you at the meeting.
