

FSSP Seminary Appeal

Postage paid envelopes are available at the back of the church. Thank you for your generosity!

Annual Bishop's Appeal 2023

As in prior years, the appeal is primarily online. <https://richmondcatholicfoundation.org/appeal/> or scan the QR code below. Questions can be directed to GiveCentral: support@givecentral.org or 833-716-2612.

Please Note

Panhandlers are not allowed on our premises. Do not encourage them by giving. There are many organizations to help those who are truly indigent.

Per Chesterfield County Police: "There has been an uptick in houses of worship being scammed for money. It seems that groups are becoming more aware of their desire to help the community and look out for people and are using this to gain money by appealing to people's better nature. Just over Easter weekend one church gave $1200.00 to a man who is wanted out of North Carolina for fraud and gaining money by false pretenses.

"You each want to do good in the community and help people out. However, take a minute and carefully consider requests for cash before you act. Especially if this is an unknown person, it may just be an attempt to get some fast money for no legitimate reason."

Online Giving

Thank you for your continued and very edifying generosity; the Parish depends on it. Please visit stjosephrichmond.weshareonline.org to create an account. For help or questions, please don't hesitate to contact the office.

Mass Schedule Changes

Please carefully note the changes highlighted in grey.

Parish Membership

Welcome to all those who have recently begun attending our parish regularly. We are glad you are here and grateful for your generosity. To join our parish, please complete the paper registration form available in the main vestibule and outside the parish office.

Upcoming Events

April 23—Volunteer Fair
May 7—Homeschool Curriculum Show & Share

TODAY—Volunteer Fair

There are currently ~1,000 parishioners who attend Sunday Masses. Our priests offer Masses 14 times per week, confessions for over 13 hours per week and in conjunction with other duties and obligations, they don't have time for much else. We need more volunteers to help us. If you are able to help, please come to the tables in the vestibule and Fr. Adrian Hall after the Masses today or email our Volunteer Coordinator, Michelle Blake: volunteer@stjosephrichmond.org

A Note From Fr. Marsolle

Keeping St. Joseph running smoothly requires support from you, our dear parishioners, with contributions of time and talent. Any amount of time or type of talent is appreciated. There are opportunities in many areas – cleaning, gardening, and landscaping to name a few. Please attend our Volunteer Fair on April 23rd (after all Masses) and join our volunteer team. Representatives will be available to answer any questions you may have. Many hands make light work.

Savvy Seniors Activity

Sat. 29 April, 10 am in Fr. Adrian Hall. Come honor the Blessed Mother with the help of the Legion of Mary, and create your own miniature prayer grotto. Supplies for the project and lunch will be provided. Email to RSVP: fiat.voultas.Tua2022@gmail.com or sign up on the Savvy Seniors bulletin board.

Homeschool Curriculum Show and Share

Sun. 7 May, 2:30 pm Homeschooling moms or those considering homeschooling, join us in the St. Joseph Room. Bring your favorite curriculums and any curriculum you'd like to swap/donate as we discuss and ask questions on best practices with veteran homeschool moms. Lap babies welcome. Hosted by Mayflower Homeschoolers. For info or to RSVP, email Katie Lord: kathleenlord11@protonmail.com.

Pastor's Corner

Dear Faithful,

Confession is a Sacrament instituted by Our Lord, whereby sins committed after Baptism are forgiven through the absolution of the priest. You'll recall Christ gave this power to His Apostles after He rose from the dead: “He said therefore to them again: Peace be to you. As the Father hath sent me, I also send you. When he had said this, he breathed on them; and he said to them: Receive ye the Holy Ghost. Whose sins you shall forgive, they are forgiven them: and whose sins you shall retain, they are retained.” John 20:21

Confession is a wonderful Sacrament where (if we prepared well and have the right dispositions) we hear the words of Christ: “I forgive you your sins.”

How to go to Confession

Of course, it goes without saying: prepare. Examine your conscience. Have your list ready.

1. The priest says, “In the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.”

2. You say, “Bless me, Father, for I have sinned.” You then say how long it has been since your last Confession.

3. You tell the priest your sins simply and forthrightly (if mortal sin, give kind & approximate number).

4. The priest will give brief advice, if time permits, and will assign you a penance and ask you to make a good act of contrition.

5. You pray the Act of Contrition (see prayer below).

6. The priest then gives you absolution.

7. The priest will then say: “Go in peace, your sins are forgiven you,” (or words to that effect).

8. You can say “Thank you,” (or words to that effect).

9. You leave the confessional and carry out the assigned penance.

The Act of Contrition

O my God, I am heartily sorry for having offended Thee and I detest all my sins because I dread the loss of Heaven and the pains of hell. But most of all, because they offend Thee, my God, Who art all good and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve, with the help of Thy grace, to confess my sins, to do penance and to amend my life. Amen.
